About

Anna is an artist and illustrator who grew up exploring the Scottish countryside and developed her talent whilst studying at Edinburgh College of Art.

Her characterful illustrations are inspired by her love of drawing, colour and textile alongside the humour she finds in the natural world. It's Anna's uniquely engaging work that forms the basis of our cards, prints and gifts.

We are an independent design led company keen to have a positive impact on our planet and commit to continually improving our ethical and environmental standards.

We'd love to hear from you...

Greetings Cards
